[NOTE: The United States Patent and Trademark Office may require additional information if there is a question as to whether either the abandonment or the delay in filing a petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional (MPEP 711.03(c), subsections (II)(C) and (D)).]

WARNING:

Petitioner/applicant is cautioned to avoid submitting personal information in documents filed in a patent application that may contribute to identity theft. Personal information such as social security numbers, bank account numbers, or credit card numbers (other than a check or credit card authorization form PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes) is never required by the USPTO to support a petition or an application. If this type of personal information is included in documents submitted to the USPTO, petitioners/applicants should consider redacting such personal information from the documents before submitting them to the USPTO. Petitioner/applicant is advised that the record of a patent application is available to the public after publication of the application (unless a non-publication request in compliance with 37 CFR 1.213(a) is made in the application) or issuance of a patent. Furthermore, the record from an abandoned application may also be available to the public if the application is referenced in a published application or an issued patent (see 37 CFR 1.14). Checks and credit card authorization forms PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes are not retained in the application file and therefore are not publicly available.

Applicant's PETITION FOR REVIVAL OF AN APPLICATION FOR PATENT ABANDONED UNINTENTIONALLY UNDER 37 CFR 1.137 (b)

Applicant's Letter To;
Commissioner for Patents

Sir;

Applicant John D. Taylor, believes that the Commissioner for patents can clearly see, from the passed history of the applicants, that the applicants, after many correspondence with the Patent Office, that the applicants was never untimely (accept once, being Oct. 16, 2003 to a Office action) and this one time the applicants untimely reply was clearly unintentional. I did not know how to reply or respond to , at the time, to the Office action of the examiners and I did not understand, and was not versed in any manner of the Patent Laws at the time.

I alone bare the responsibility, for the untimely reply to the Office action of Oct. 16, 2003, and am the only one to blame for the untimely response reply to the examiners. In other petitions that I have filed, I tried to give the reasons, of why I failed to reply timely. I made a mistake by not responding to the Office action that was purely unintentional. I regret and I am sorry for the untimely response to the Office action, the examiners, and my son; for I am the one responsible. I ask the Commissioner for patents for forgiveness, and allow applicant to make amends. And allow applicants to continue with their Patent application and revive the application from a abandonment that was unintentional. I don't know what else to do accept ask for forgiveness for my mistakes that was "unintentional".

Honest & Sincerely
Respectfully Submitted
